/Information on the "stani" or "company," a group of several related families consisting of at least four adults and generally between fifteen to fifty persons of all ages, organized together as a means of best managing the flocks, will be found in category 474./